

SAFARI SONG

WATERCOLOUR HEART

ILLUSTRATION & DESIGN STUDIO

Growing up in South Africa, wildlife was never something we had to travel far to see. Even now, our neighbouring farm has wildebeest and zebra, and they are occasionally spotted on the way to school. Game Reserve and safari experiences here are truly special – giraffes moving through the early morning mist, elephants crossing the road ahead of us, the particular stillness that settles over the bush before the sun comes up. A safari drive is a lesson in paying attention. In listening, feeling and noticing the rhythm of nature around you, just like a song.

Safari Song is a love letter to that world. To the golden plains and lush canopies I've known since childhood. To the marvel of creation and how wonderfully unique each animal is. It's a collection designed to carry the feeling I know from those family holidays and weekends away – adventurous and refined, wild in subject but soft and harmonious in the hand.

Painted and designed for the quilter who loves the beauty of the natural world, and wants a little piece of it living in their home or nursery.
